

About the City & County of San Francisco

In 2019, San Francisco Mayor, London Breed, signed racial equity legislation mandating the development of a city-wide racial equity framework and that every department within the City & County of San Francisco (CCSF) create a racial equity action plan. As a subcontractor to Conant Coaching & Consulting, a)plan served as the racial equity coaching and training partner for departments including Assessor, Controller, Environment, Public Utilities Commission, and Treasurer & Tax.

CCSF employees are barred from providing testimonials. Nonetheless, Director of San Francisco Environment Department, Tyrone Jue, would be happy to speak with any interested parties about his and his department's experience: tyrone.jue@sfgov.org.

Engagement Summary

Our robust approach to meeting the City's needs involved coaching, consulting, and training. Specifically, we:

- Delivered workshops for all staff (Racial Equity Fundamentals; Interrupting Microaggressions and Imposter Syndrome)
- Designed and delivered a workshop for all supervisors (Managing With A Racial Equity Mindset)
- Facilitated small group conversations in intact teams to support shared understanding and application of training content
- Provided one-on-one coaching for all supervisors to support integrating and putting into action what they learned in training

CCSF's ROI

Our client surveys help customers understand the return of their ongoing coaching and training investments. For CCSF, participants were asked to rank their agreement with various statements on the impact of their experiences.
